

SOCIAL ASPECTS OF YOUTH POLICY IN UKRAINE

Belashova Ya.O.,

Specialist of Social and Psychological Service
Kherson State University

In modern society, there are many social problems, the negative impact of which especially affects young people. In many cases, youth appears to be in a difficult position because of ignorance of their rights and opportunities, guaranteed by state by issuing laws, regulations and other documents, which are necessary to know to defend their interests.

The purpose of the article is to determine the basic guarantees provided by the youth policy in various spheres of youth life.

Thus, important areas of state youth policy in Ukraine are to ensure appropriate conditions for the advancement of youth in various spheres of life. Unfortunately, there is no area of life, where young people feel completely secure and invulnerable. Today, there are many problems associated with the implementation of youth policy. These problems are caused by the financial, economic and political turmoil, because at this time there is a problem in harmonization of existing laws with new social demands, the development of new approaches to the formation of worthy conditions of life of young people. Thus, the state youth policy should aim at creating a socio-economic, political, organizational, legal conditions and guarantees for the self-determination, intellectual, moral and physical development of young people, enabling to implement their creative potential both in their own interest and in the interests of Ukraine.